

Policy on Involvement of Commercial Supporter in CME Activity

According to the Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), a Commercial Supporter of a certified continuing education activity may not:

- specify the manner in which the provider will fulfill the requirements of the ACCME's Elements, Policies and Standards.
- provide suggestions for speakers or topics
- request scientific/medical accuracy review

The American Academy of CME and its joint sponsors are required to adhere to these policies.
