Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education Confers Accreditation with Commendation to American Academy of CME

Jackson, NJ – American Academy of CME, Inc. (Academy) is pleased to announce that it has been awarded “Accreditation with Commendation” status by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME).

The ACCME employs a rigorous, multilevel process for evaluating institutions' continuing medical education programs according to the high accreditation standards adopted by all seven ACCME member organizations. These organizations of medicine in the US are the American Board of Medical Specialties, the American Hospital Association, the American Medical Association, the Association for Hospital Medical Education, the Association of American Medical Colleges, the Council of Medical Specialty Societies, and the Federation of State Medical Boards of the US, Inc.

“Accreditation with Commendation” is awarded to providers who demonstrate compliance in all ACCME accreditation criteria and policies. In a letter notifying the Academy of its decision, the ACCME commended the Academy “for meeting the ACCME’s accreditation requirements and for demonstrating that yours is a learning organization and a change agent for the physicians you serve.”

The Academy was initially accredited by the ACCME in 2001, and has been reaccredited three times since its inception.

“Our team is excited to to be among those providers who have achieved this highest level of accreditation from the ACCME,” said John JD Juchniewicz, MCIS, CCMEP, president of the Academy. “We look forward to continuing to offer CME-certified activities for physicians that increase learner knowledge and competence and ultimately change participant performance and improve patient outcomes.
