November 30, 2012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education Reaccredits American Academy of CME

Jackson, NJ – American Academy of CME, Inc. (Academy) is pleased to announce that it has been reaccredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME).

The decision to reaccredited an ACCME provider of continuing medical education (CME) is based on a review of the organization’s self-study report, evidence of performance-in-Practice, and an accreditation interview. In addition, a provider must demonstrate compliance in Level 2 (C1-15) Criteria and the Accreditation Policies.

The Academy was initially accredited by the ACCME in 2001, and was reaccredited in 2004, 2008, and now 2012.

“Our team is excited to once again be awarded Accreditation status by the ACCME,” said John JD Juchniewicz, MCIS, CCMEP, president of the Academy. “We look forward to continuing to offer CME-certified activities for physicians that increase learner knowledge and competence and ultimately change participant performance and improve patient outcomes.

About American Academy of CME, Inc.
The American Academy of CME, Inc. (Academy) is an independent, non-profit, medical education foundation headquartered in Jackson, New Jersey. Founded in 2001, the Academy is an accredited provider of physician, pharmacist, nurse, and registered dietitian continuing education by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation (ANCC) with distinction, the Accreditation Council on Pharmaceutical Education (ACPE), and the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) respectfully.

###