American Academy of CME, Inc. Welcomes New President

Jackson, NJ – The American Academy of CME, Inc. (Academy) is pleased to announce John JD Juchniewicz, MCIS, CCMEP, as our new President effective January 1, 2012.

“I am very honored to have been selected for this position, and look to continue to build upon the Academy’s long history of providing high-quality, continuing education activities for healthcare professionals,” Juchniewicz said in response to being named to the role. Prior to joining the Academy as its President, Juchniewicz served as both a consultant to the Academy, and in 2011 was appointed to the Academy’s Board of Directors.

The Academy is an accredited provider of physician, pharmacist, nurse, and registered dietitian continuing education by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council on Pharmaceutical Education (ACPE), the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation (ANCC), and the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) respectfully. It is focused on providing quality health care professional education that changes the competence, performance, and patient outcomes of the health care provider.

Founder and former President, Sondra L. Moylan, MS, RN will remain on the Board of Directors and as Executive Vice President, Compliance and Global CME.

The American Academy of CME, Inc. (Academy) is an independent, non-profit, medical education foundation headquartered in Jackson, New Jersey. The Academy was founded in 2001.
